Writing and Reading Center Scavenger Hunt

For this activity, you will need to move around the Writing and Reading Center (WRC). You may also ask lab aides, tutors, instructors on duty, and other WRC staff for help.

1. How many hours of lab time must you log in for in order to be eligible to pass English 1A?

2. How do you get credit for lab time?

3. What are at least 3 different productive activities that students may be engaged in during lab time?
   A.
   B.
   C.

4. List at least two methods of self-teaching that the lab provides.
   A.
   B.

5. What hours is the lab open?

6. Ask one of the teachers on duty in the lab the following questions:
   A. What's the difference between a tutoring session and seeking help from an instructor on duty?
   B. What's one effective question that a student might ask an instructor on duty?
   C. What is a reasonable amount of time for a teacher on duty to spend with an individual student?
   D. Any additional comments/advice:

(More questions on reverse)
7. Ask a lab aide these questions:

   A. What do I need in order to print a document in the writing lab?

   B. How do I find out what workshops are offered?

   C. How can I get tutoring?

   D. Any additional comments/advice:

Instructor Name:___________________________ Instructor Signature:___________________________