WRITING AND READING CENTER
#19

PRONOUN CASE and AGREEMENT

Choose the correct standard English pronoun, and write it in the space at the left.

EXAMPLE:  __me__ Cindy divided the tasks between Carlos and (I, me).

___  1. The package was addressed to Foley, Brigid, and (I, me, myself).

___  2. (We, Us) cadets are sponsoring the Saturday night dance.

___  3. Few people are as rich as (she, her).

___  4. Do you think Hilda would approve of (me, my) changing the title of her story?

___  5. Mr. Lopez, Ms. Hinton, and (I, myself) were the cosponsors of the club.

___  6. Do you know anyone who is more awkward than (he, him)?

___  7. The prompters will be Dr. Lee and (they, them).

___  8. It was (we, us) who encouraged Charley to become an artist.

___  9. (Him, He) and the Mendozas shared the expenses.

___ 10. I like mocha ice cream better than (her, she).

___ 11. The editor (hiself, himself) disapproved of the article.

___ 12. The Wilkinsons acted solely out of interest for (themselves, themselves).

___ 13. Nothing will ever come between you and (me, I).

___ 14. Did you ask her (who, whom) was on the telephone?

___ 15. Challenge (whoever, whomever) you like.

___ 16. Patty is the musician against (who, whom) we competed.

___ 17. (Who, Whom) did the contractor finally hire?

___ 19. The travel arrangements have been made for (we, us) students.

___ 20. (Who, Whom) did you say had the briefcase?