WRITING AND READING CENTER
#31

COMMAS

Insert any necessary commas in the following sentences. Note: Some sentences may not need commas.

EXAMPLE: The old tattered coat hung on a hook by the front door.

The old, tattered coat hung on a hook by the front door.

1. Lavonne and Jacob were married in the quaint Swiss mountain village of St. Helene.
2. When she saw that the minister was eating Grandmother withdrew to the kitchen.
3. The ambassador's wife is an attractive gracious woman
4. The white fluffy clouds floated across the sky.
5. Perez hit the first long homerun of the season.
6. Josie found four green Easter eggs.
7. Everyone agreed that Professor Chung had delivered an exceptional interesting lecture.
8. The hot glaring sun made the graduation ceremony a distasteful experience.
9. High above the town the hawk made lazy circles in the sky.
10. Shortly before ten fifteen of the escaped prisoners were recaptured.
11. Perched atop the statue was a large black raven.
13. Outside the crowded auditorium was a group of glum disappointed ticket-holders.
14. The popular high school French teacher was honored by his students.
15. After all your efforts to solve the problem have not gone unnoticed.
16. The waiter wore a dirty torn apron and spoke in harsh impatient tones.
17. We gave Mother a tiny white Persian kitten for her last birthday.
18. Our diligent mayor is a dedicated civil servant and an effective administrator.
19. The massive granite mountains and crystal clear lakes are just two of New Hampshire's many tourist attractions.
20. On the decorated platform stood the tall courtly Marine Corps general.