QUOTATION MARKS

In the following passages, supply or correct the quotation marks and other necessary marks of punctuation related to quotations.

EXAMPLE: Where are the snows of yesteryear Margaret quoted dramatically.
           “Where are the snows of yesteryear?” Margaret quoted dramatically.

1. “You should learn to think before you act my roommate advised me. In fact, you should think twice.”

2. Can you explain to me Eleanor said, exactly what Camus meant by the phrase “absurd man”?

3. “In which poem the teacher asked, in “The Road Not Taken” or in “Stopping by Woods”, do we find the line But I have promises to keep?”

4. In his poem ‘Mending Wall’, Robert Frost wrote Something there is that doesn’t love a wall.

5. Marlene calls herself my “guide, philosopher, and friend;” however, I would welcome less philosophy and guidance Carlos said.

6. “But at my back I always hear Helen quoted Time’s winged chariot hurrying near”.

7. The professor asked “Which character in Hamlet says “There is nothing either good or bad, but thinking makes it so?”

8. Raymond recited his favorite lines from Macbeth “Methought I heard a voice cry,
   “Sleep no more! Macbeth doth murder sleep!”

9. Alice Walker’s Everyday Use and Raymond Carver’s Cathedral are two of Paul’s favorite short stories.

10. Janet paused to find a figure of speech. “John Donne expressed it well, she said, he wrote
    No man is an island. Don’t you agree with this idea?”