Understanding a Poem #3

Purpose: Upon completion of this activity, students will have practiced interpreting a poem. This DLA should take approximately 30 to 45 minutes to complete.

1. Read the following poem:

   “The Road Not Taken” by Robert Frost

   Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
   And sorry I could not travel both
   And be one traveler, long I stood
   And looked down one as far as I could
   To where it bent in the undergrowth;

   Then took the other, as just as fair,
   And having perhaps the better claim,
   Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
   Though as for that the passing there
   Had worn them really about the same,
   And both that morning equally lay
   In leaves no step had trodden black.
   Oh, I kept the first for another day!
   Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
   I doubted if I should ever come back.

   I shall be telling this with a sigh
   Somewhere ages and ages hence;
   Two roads diverged in a wood, and I –
   I took the one less traveled by,
   And that has made all the difference.

2. Answer the following questions:

   A. What is the poem’s situation?

   B. Why does the speaker feel he has made the right decision?

   C. What situations could this apply to (other than walking in the woods)?

3. Take this sheet and meet with an instructor or tutor to go over your answers and discuss the poem. Have that person sign below.
